

CONFERENCE on Upskilling for Adults

The General Secretariat for VET & Lifelong Learning is organizing a conference on "Upskilling for Adults: Upskilling Pathways and Flexible learning" in the Ministry of Education and Religious Affairs on Tuesday, November 19, 2019, from 10:00 to 15:00.

The conference is organized as part of the implementation of the European Agenda for Adult Learning and the action "EaSI BASIC: Building Alternative Innovative Skills".

The General Secretariat for VET & Lifelong Learning, as National Coordinator has been implementing the "European Agenda for Adult Learning" since 2012.

BASIC (Building Alternative Skills' Innovative sChemes) action plan is being implemented by OAED, KANEP-GSEE, IME-GSEVEE, and the Ministry of Education (GS for VET & LL) since 2018.

The conference will present:

- The National Action Plan for the implementation of the European Adult Education Agenda 2017-2019 including e-learning - Pilot Adult Education Program.
- The EaSI-BASIC Action, which includes the results of studies on low-skilled adult education methodology, skills assessment, Target Groups in need and pilot training.

Lidia Salvatore (CEDEFOP), will be the keynote speaker at the event, who will talk about the Upskilling pathways Recommendation and in particular the developments and challenges that countries are facing.

The conference will close with a round table, where academics D. Vergidis, Th. Karalis, M. Koutouzis and N. Fotopoulos will lead a discussion on the evaluation of respective European programs and actions focusing on the challenges of their implementation.

The conference will be broadcast live via "DIAVLOS" service.
